

I think it very unfair if XM (and other) Satellite radio services are prohibited from offering certain content, such as traffic and weather. I benefit from hearing those services via XM satellite radio - why in the world would that be prohibited by my government??? Please reject the NAB petition 04-160 as unfair and unhelpful to the general public, such as me.

Thank you,
Peggy Miller